

TONY ROCK

Born in the same Brooklyn, NY hospital where most of his seven brothers and one sister found their way into the world, Tony Rock was born laughing. He grew up in one of the toughest neighborhoods in New York and developed a natural knack for entertaining.

“On a daily basis I’d see a dozen characters (and I emphasize the word characters). One moment, I’d be fighting for my life. The next minute I’d be laughing hysterically. There’s a lot of drama in the city and I took it all in.”

Tony has been performing for years and he has gained a reputation as a young star in the making. The Hollywood Reporter recently picked him as one of the hot young talents to come out of New York.

Tony is currently on his third season of “All of Us” on UPN, playing the role of Dirk Black. He also recently completed shooting the film “Homie Spumoni” with Whoopi Goldberg and Joey Fatone. Tony was previously the host of “Can You Tell?” and a feature reporter on “Battlebots”, and he’s been featured on Howard Stern, Extra, and Craig Kilborn. Tony can be seen performing at comedy clubs across the country, including Caroline’s, the Apollo, the Laugh Factory, and the Comedy Store.
